Oh, you're the girl that was at the diner.

What's up with your eyes?

...If you are a hunter, I was hoping for some help hunting down some quarry.

Huh. Those guys tell you all about me and the spirit they think they saw, then?
I'm not interested. You can take care of it yourself.
Haha! Dude, that was already the plan. No, I don't want your help with that.

I want your help tracking down and killing the Hierophant.
